Accessibility Amenities in the Children's Museum

5.26.2023

The Children's Museum: Entry

- Wide entrances and exits to reduce wait times and to ensure children are staying with the appropriate caregivers

The Children's Museum: Energy Zone

- This is a loud, popular gallery with a light and sound that go off when the ball container get full.
- Entrance held together via magnets so the balls can stay in the space.

The Children's Museum: Animal Spot

One of the calmest spots in The Children's Museum

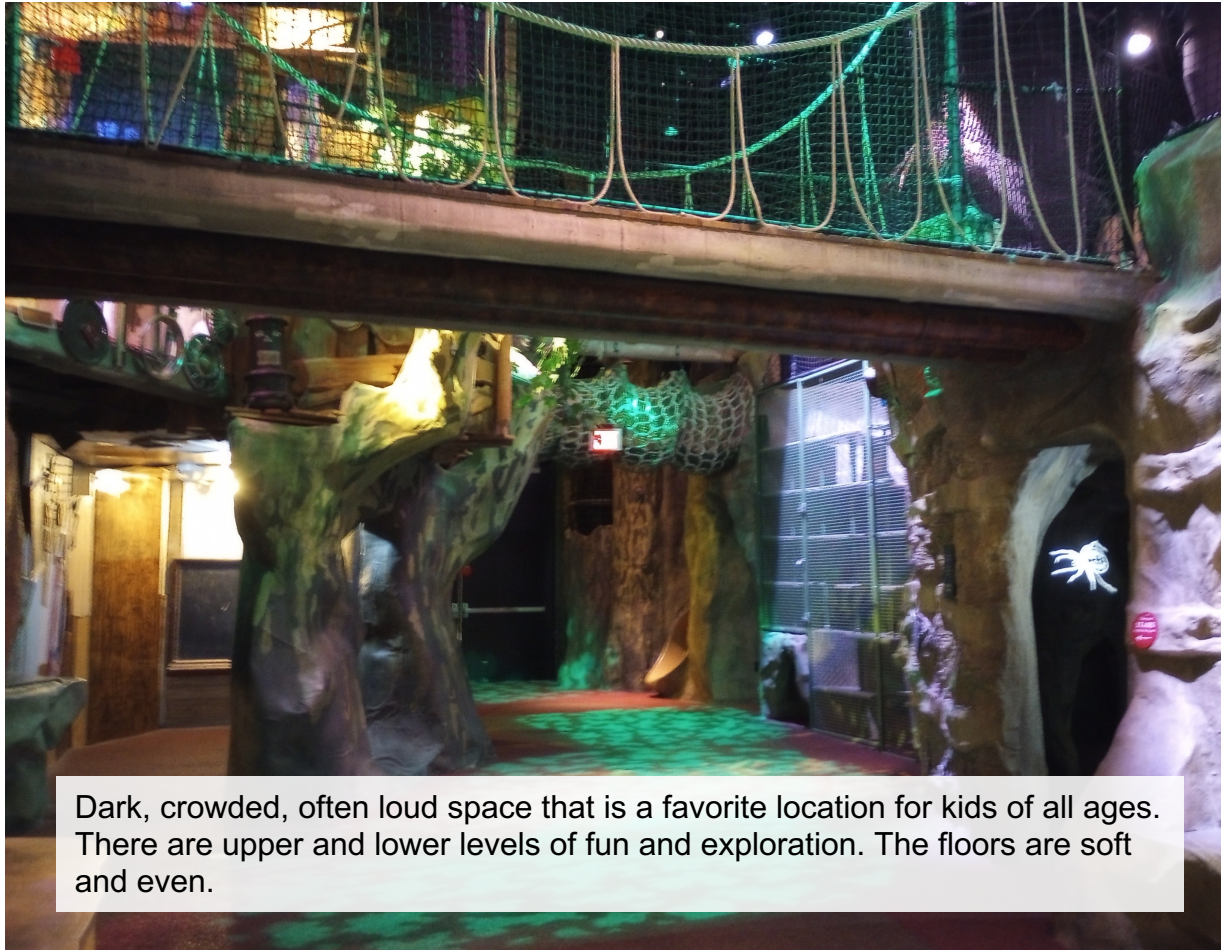

Movable seating that can be adapted for various needs

The Children's Museum: Nature's Trading Post

- A quieter, nature-focused gallery.
- There are live animals in the space as well.
- Chairs and table are movable.

The Children's Museum: The Woods

Dark, crowded, often loud space that is a favorite location for kids of all ages. There are upper and lower levels of fun and exploration. The floors are soft and even.

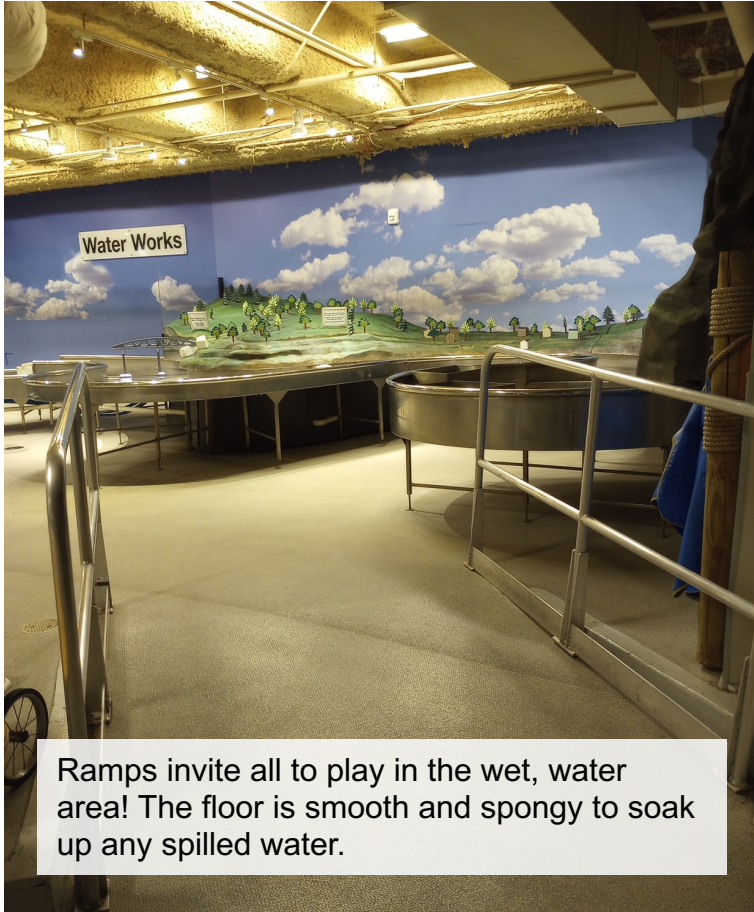

Tunnel allows individuals to sit among the fish.

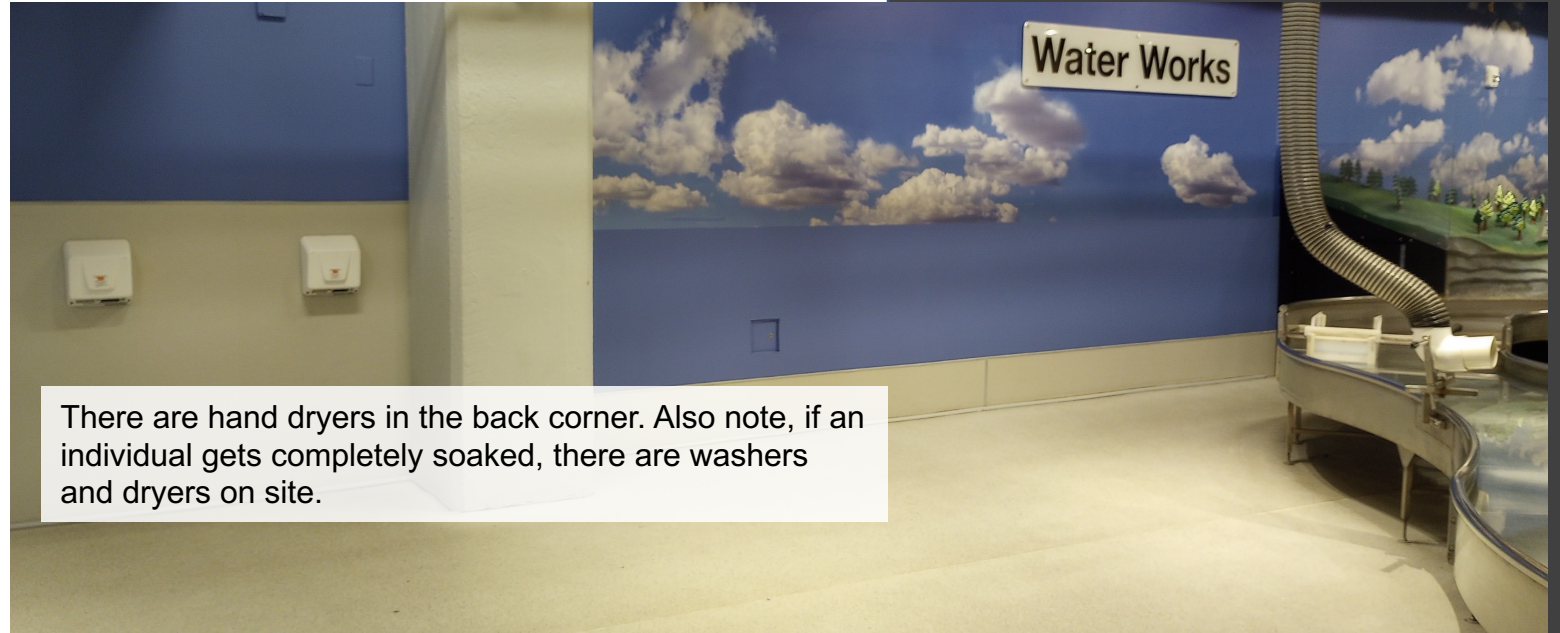

There is a wheelchair lift that can be used to help guests access the upper level.

The Children's Museum: Water Works

Ramps invite all to play in the wet, water area! The floor is smooth and spongy to soak up any spilled water.

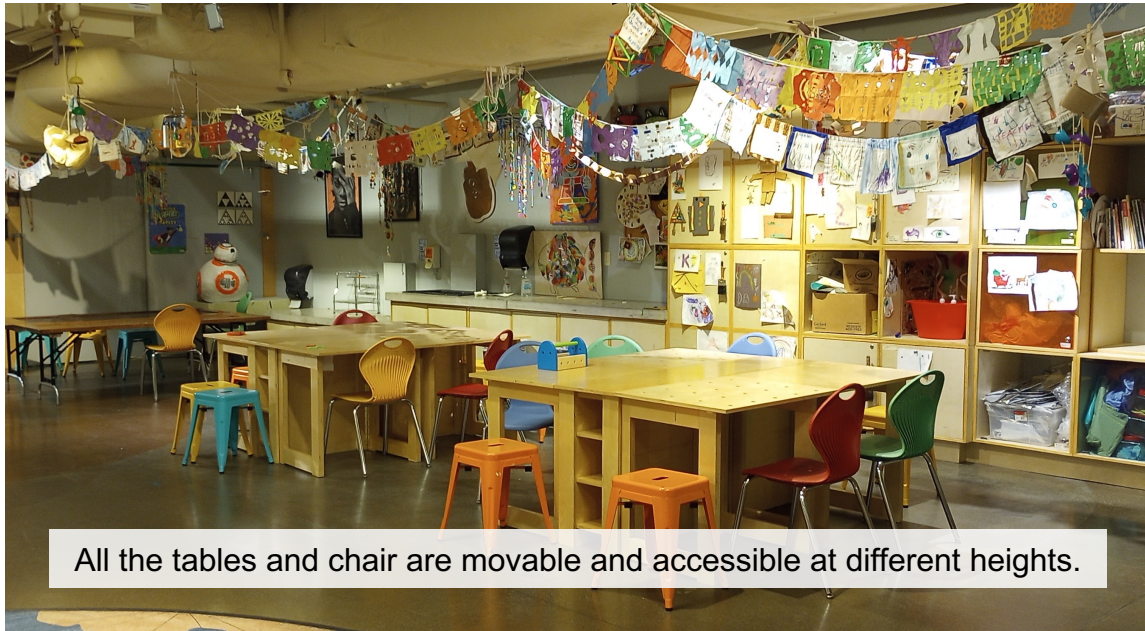

There are hand dryers in the back corner. Also note, if an individual gets completely soaked, there are washers and dryers on site.

The Children's Museum: Little Sprouts Farm

- This area is especially designed for guests 4 years old and younger. Old guests who need to use the gallery are welcome to as well. The gallery is filled with gentle ramps, tactile elements and softer elements.
- Note: This gallery contains our Story Tree and the Parent Resource Room.

The Children's Museum: KidSPACE

All the tables and chair are movable and accessible at different heights.

This is a sensory stimulating space. However, there are calm quiet spaces built in, like in the darkened yurt, and the art-based activities and options are wonderful calming, creative outlets.

The Children's Museum: Inside the Grin

- Giant teeth that kids can brush, climb on and explore.

The Children's Museum: Construction Zone

- Large open spaces of different types of construction materials.

The Children's Museum: Kid's Town

- A very popular, busy gallery with large open spaces of different places within a town for imaginative play.

The Children's Museum: Extra Amenities

- There is a quiet nook behind KidSPACE for those needing a brief respite from KidSPACE or Kid's Town.
